

Clerk-Carrier Positions Open At Post Office

Does your New Year's list include a new job? If so, you may be glad to know that the closing date for application for Clerk-Carrier positions at the Torrance Post Office has been extended, and the examinations will be open until further notice.

Postmaster Clara A. Conner said today the time is extended because not enough applications have come in to insure filling the vacancies.

These jobs are an opportunity to work into a career position in the Post Office Service," he said. "Some of the immediate advantages are starting pay of $1.81 1/2 cents an hour, 40-hour week, overtime pay, and liberal vacation and sick-leave privileges."

Applicants must live in the delivery zone of the Torrance Post Office or be patrons of that Post Office.

Application forms are available from T. C. Morrere, Civil Service Secretary at the Post Office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, 630 S. San Francisco St., San Francisco 11, Cal.

Navyman's Wife Seeks Students In Languages

Mrs. Edward J. Sulzman, whose husband is a chief petty officer with the Navy on duty in Korean waters, was in town yesterday looking for a job.

Born and raised in Italy, Mrs. Sulzman isn't looking just for any job—she wants to help someone with their Spanish lessons. Or for that matter, Latin, German, French, or Italian. "The days are just too long," Mrs. Sulzman said. Edward is not expecting to be returned to the United States until next summer. She and her son, 20-month-old Victor, are awaiting his return at their home at 4002 N. 176th St.

A native of Sienna, Italy, Mrs. Sulzman attended public schools and the university there, where she majored in languages. If you're having trouble with your language lessons, Mrs. Sulzman may be able to help you.

Alter Named to Lead Directory

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of LEADS, Inc., an investment corporation, held Monday, Dec. 22, 1952, at 1436 Marcelina Ave., Torrance, Gerald L. Alter, Torrance realtor, was elected a director and secretary. Fred Hudkins of Long Beach was reelected president and H. L. Rushfeldt of Torrance was reelected vice president.

This corporation, dealing mainly in the purchase and sale of real estate and trust deeds, has named the Alter Realty & Insurance of Torrance as its agent to represent them in all realty deals, as well as acting as consultant on all realty problems. After a discussion by Alter as to the future prospects of real estate in the Torrance area, the directors unanimously agreed with Alter that this area has unlimited possibilities, and that purchases here should be given priority.

In addition to Leads, Inc., Alter is also director and president of Alter Realty & Insurance and Alter Building Company, and is the retiring vice president and director of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board.
